A performance to launch the IRAQ album

Thursday 31 October 2019, 7pm

St John's Church, Hyde Park Crescent, Hyde Park, London W2 2QD

Introduced by John Suchet, Classic FM

Andy was the last British General in Basra and experienced three campaigns spanning 19 years of turmoil in Iraq. He takes you on an emotional and personal journey through conflict, set against a backdrop of three works of art, suffused with live piano improvisations from Australian concert pianist and award winning film composer Tom Donald, and haunting vocals from Kurd Nawroz Oramari. This is a story of resurrection, redemption and hope. A story of communities and faiths uniting to further peace and reconciliation.
